Lane

by Barber & Osgerby

Lane è il risultato di un'analisi concettuale sul colore, interpretato attraverso uno studio dettagliato dei quartieri e delle architetture di Londra, città che da sempre è fonte di ispirazione per i designer.

Lane si compone di 3 versioni: Base, Poly e Mono. La versione Base consiste in 5 palette cromatiche (White, Black, Grey, Aubergine e Terracotta) ognuna delle quali è formata da un melange di numerosi toni diversi. Come nelle facciate degli edifici londinesi alcuni colori forti si stagliano sul tono di fondo, così in Poly vengono aggiunti alcuni elementi in contrasto ai range precedenti. Mono, invece, è la versione optical ed esiste solo nelle tonalità White e Black. La collezione è disponibile nel formato 7,9 x 16 cm ed è adatta ad ambienti interni ed esterni, sia a pavimento che a rivestimento.

Like facades in London, where a number of strong colours stand out against the background shade, added to Poly are a number of elements in contrast to the previous ranges, while Mono is the optical version and comes in White and Black only. The collection comes in the 7.9 x 16 cm size and is suitable for both indoor and outdoor settings, on both floors and walls.

Edward Barber & Jay Osgerby

Edward Barber e Jay Osgerby hanno aperto il loro studio a Londra nel 1996. Il loro approccio multidisciplinare sfida i confini del design industriale, dell'architettura e dell'arte. Sono entrati a far parte del team Mutina nel 2013. Hanno firmato le collezioni Mews, Mistral, Primavera e Puzzle.

I loro lavori includono collezioni per Knoll, Vitra, B & B Italia, Cappellini, Venini e Flos, limited edition e commissioni pubbliche come la London 2012 Olympic Torch e la moneta da 2 sterline disegnata per la Royal Mint. La prima monografia estensiva loro dedicata, pubblicata da Rizzoli New York, è del 2011. Entrambi sono Royal Designers for Industry (RDI) e Honorary Doctors of Art. Il loro lavoro è nelle collezioni permanenti di musei in tutto il mondo, come il V&A e il Design Museum di Londra, il Metropolitan Museum of Art di New York o l'Art Institute di Chicago.

Edward Barber and Jay Osgerby opened their London studio in 1996. Their multidisciplinary approach pushes the boundaries of industrial design towards art and architecture. They joined the Mutina team in 2013. They designed Mews, Mistral, Primavera and Puzzle collections.

Their work includes collections for Knoll, Vitra, B & B Italia, Cappellini, Venini and Flos, limited edition pieces and commissions such as the London 2012 Olympic Torch and the £2 coin designed for the Royal Mint. The first extensive monograph on the pair was published by Rizzoli New York in 2011. They are both Royal Designers for Industry (RDI) and Honorary Doctors of Art. Their work is included in the permanent collections of museums around the world, such as the V&A and Design Museum in London, the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and Chicago's Art Institute.

Le piastrelle rispecchiano le sfumature e variazioni di colore tipiche di Londra. Riecheggiando delle sue atmosfere e consentendo un'infinità di combinazioni possibili, da quelle più delicate a quelle più vivaci e coinvolgenti, l'ampio range cromatico di questa collezione lascia spazio all'individualità.

Lane tiles reflect the nuances and shifts in colour typical of London, echoing its atmospheres and with a broad colour range that allows for an endless variety of possible combinations, from delicate to more lively and engaging, leaving plenty of scope to express individuality.
